Re: USA v. Rosa
Docket No. 97-13-1

Dear Judge:

Please accept this letter as a request for a modification of my remaining sentence. For the reasons specified herein, I request that the court order that the remainder of my sentence be served under home confinement to enable me to adjust to community life and seek employment in order to contribute to supporting my family. As your honor will note from the record in my case, on February 10, 1999 I was sentenced to a term of 12 yrs. My projected release date is August 26, 2007. The basis for my request to modify my confinement is to facilitate my transition home and into the community. Due to my own medical necessity compounded by other serious medical problems affecting my youngest child and my father, I will require more time to adjust than the average inmate.

First, from birth I have been afflicted with a degenerative ocular disease known as Stargadt's maculopathy. Macular degeneration is an incurable form of blindness. It is difficult for me to clearly see objects or persons beyond a distance of five feet. With each day that passes, I can sense the greater deterioration of my limited eyesight. Soon will come the time when I will not be able to see my children's faces. More importantly, however, my disease will eventually preclude me from providing for my family. Because of the limitations associated with my eyesight, it will take me an extraordinarily long time to adjust to life outside of prison; to find employment; and to get around in general. No doubt, it will take me longer to adjust to life in the community than the average healthy inmate. For this reason, I pray the court exercise its discretion in light of this compassionate plea, and grant my request.

In further support of my request, I offer to your honor the other reasons why the court should grant my request. My youngest daughter, Brianna, was born pre-mature. At the tender age of 2 she was diagnosed with Histocytosis, a rare and frequently fatal blood disease that affects the bodys immune system. Its cause is unknown and its progression is unpredictable. The constant care required to comfort and keep her healthy is becoming a more burdensome task daily to my wife. My daughter requires a lot more attention than an average child her age, and as it is my wife must work two jobs to make ends meet.

In addition to the burden of maintaining a household, my wife is also responsibly caring for my father who is of frail health. Since my imprisonment, my father has suffered two heart attacks, consequently, neither he nor my mother are available to help with Brianna's care. In fact, my wife often has to accompany my father to medical appointments, and such, as he can not get around on his own and requires a translator to communicate with his healthcare providers.

Judge, it is for these reasons that I ask for a modification of my confinement. I am not in any way seeking a commutation of my sentence. I acknowledge that I have approximately fourteen months more to serve before I am eligible for CCC. I merely request that my confinement be changed to home confinement now, enabling me to begin my transition sooner due to my personal circumstances.

Although, I have been incarcerated for approximately nine years, I have maintained an outstanding institutional adjustment. Please see the enclosed Progress Report. Notwithstanding my disability I completed my GED Program. Unlike other inmates who did not suffer any visual impairment, I relied on audio tapes for my lessons. While at Allenwood, I completed the Parenting Training Class, and participated in the low security parenting committee. As part of my drug treatment program, I participated in both alcoholics and narcotics anonymous.

To date I maintain a good rapport with the members of the administration here at Fairton FCI. In fact it is as a result of discussions with members of the administration that I was encouraged to make the present request for modification. It is, therefor with the greatest degree of respect for the law and the institution of our criminal justice system that I request a modification of my confinement for the very personal reasons I have outlined above.

Respectfully submitted,

Wilfredo Tito Rosa
